SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA) (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520), Federal agencies must obtain approval from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for each collection of information they conduct or sponsor. In addition, the PRA also requires Federal agencies to provide a 60-day notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each new proposed collection, each proposed extension of existing collection of information, and each reinstatement of previously approved information collection before submitting the collection to the OMB for approval. To comply with this requirement, we are publishing this notice of a proposed data collection as described below.

The OMB is particularly interested in comments that will help:

1. Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
2. Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
3. Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;
4. Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses; and

5. Assess information collection costs.

Proposed Project

Feeding My Baby and Me: Infant Feeding Practices Study III (FMB&M-IFPS III) (OMB Control No. 0920-1333, Exp. 4/30/2024) - Extension - National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotions (NCCDPHP), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Background and Brief Description

Infant Feeding Practices Study (IFPS) III is a longitudinal study that will follow pregnant women and their new baby for two years. Data will be collected using web-based surveys at multiple time points over two years. This includes: 1) a prenatal survey; 2) 14 follow-up surveys after the baby is born; and 3) 2-4 maternal dietary data recalls. The data from IFPS III will be used to: 1) fill research gaps on how feeding behaviors, patterns, and practice changes over the first two years of life and the health-related impacts; 2) inform multiple Federal agency efforts targeting maternal and infant and toddler nutrition through work in hospitals, with health care providers, with early care and education providers, and outreach to families and caregivers; and 3) provide context to policy level documents such as the U.S. Dietary Guidelines for Americans, which will include pregnant women and children birth to 24 months of age for the first time in 2020–2025.

This is an Extension of previously approved data collection efforts. No changes are proposed. OMB approval is requested for one year. Participation is voluntary, and there are no costs to respondents other than their time. The total estimated annualized burden hours requested are 5,051.
